Incendiary, Culminates, Scoured

Incendiary (आग लगानेवाला / भड़काऊ) (Adjective/Noun) (in-'sɛn-di-er-ē) (Negative Tone)

- Meaning of word (English):
 - As an adjective: Designed to cause fires or provoke strong reactions.
 - As a noun: A person who starts fires or incites conflicts.
- Meaning of word (Hindi):
 - विशेषण के रूप में: आग लगाने के लिए बनाया गया या तीव्र प्रतिक्रियाएँ भड़काने वाला।
 - संज्ञा के रूप में: वह व्यक्ति जो आग लगाता है या टकराव को उकसाता है।
- Root word: Derived from Latin incendere (to set on fire).
- Synonym: Flammable, Provocative, Inflammatory
- Antonym: Non-flammable, Peaceful, Soothing
- Connotation: Negative

Use in Non-Fiction (300 words max.):

Incendiary rhetoric has played a significant role in history, influencing revolutions, protests, and conflicts. Politicians and media personalities sometimes use incendiary language to manipulate public sentiment, leading to unrest. On the other hand, incendiary innovations, such as controlled explosions in rocket technology, have advanced scientific progress.

Correct and Incorrect Usage (English + Hindi Equivalent):

✓ Correct: His incendiary speech triggered widespread protests. (उनके भड़काऊ भाषण ने व्यापक विरोध प्रदर्शनों को जन्म दिया।)

✗ Incorrect: The incendiary lake was calm and peaceful. (वह भड़काऊ झील शांत और स्थिर थी।)
[Incorrect, as lakes cannot be 'incendiary'.]

Example (English + Hindi Equivalent):

- The journalist was criticized for using incendiary language in his article. (पत्रकार को अपने लेख में भड़काऊ भाषा का उपयोग करने के लिए आलोचना का सामना करना पड़ा।)

Detailed Low-Level Grammatical Structure Explanation of the Example:

- The journalist (Definite Article + Noun, Subject)
- was criticized (Verb, Past Tense, Passive Voice)
- for using incendiary language (Prepositional Phrase, Reason Modifier)
- in his article (Prepositional Phrase, Location Modifier)

My Statement:

- (ADJECTIVE)
 - He was forced to deliver an incendiary speech.
 - An incendiary art holds the power to change the mindset of people negatively. ***
 - An incendiary piece of art holds the power to negatively influence people's mindsets.
 - The war started because of the incendiary actions of the army personnel.
- (NOUN)
 - The incendiary behind the war ran away as quickly as possible. ***
 - The incendiary responsible for the war ran away as quickly as possible.
 - We don't need an external incendiary when we have our own inside our group. ***
 - We don't need an external incendiary when we already have one within our own group.
 - We were feeding an incendiary, now he is with the rival team. ***
 - We were supporting an incendiary, and now he is with the rival team.

My Notes:

- "An incendiary art" → "An incendiary piece of art" → "Art" is an uncountable noun, so "a piece of art" is more natural.
