1 Drool (लार टपकना) (Verb / Noun) (drool) (Neutral / Informal)

- Meaning (English):
 - Verb: to let saliva flow from the mouth; to show excessive admiration.
 - Noun: saliva flowing from the mouth.
- Meaning (Hindi): मुँह से लार टपकना; अत्यधिक लालसा दिखाना।
- Origin Flowchart & Etymology:
 - Middle English droulen → Modern English drool
- Synonym + Antonym:

 - Antonyms: restrain, control
- Connotation: Neutral (literal); mildly negative or humorous (figurative)
- Pictorial Scenario: A dog drooling at the sight of food.

- Use in Non-Fiction (in 100 words):

Drool appears in medical and behavioral contexts to describe involuntary salivation, often linked to neurological or dental conditions. Figuratively, writers use it sparingly to criticize exaggerated desire or uncritical admiration. In formal writing, the literal sense is preferred for clarity and professionalism.
